

Raise a Glass to Union Made Vodka!

Some will enter a spirit-ed debate over whether martinis are best enjoyed shaken or stirred. At Labor 411, we're more concerned about which "water of life" you're pouring into that martini in the first place. Fortunately, the list below has plenty of vodkas made by companies who treat their workers fairly. Consult the list below, and let's all help support the middle class by shaking and/or stirring our way to a stronger America.
