That classic Southern quaff, the mint julep, is traditionally concocted with a mint leaf, sugar, water and our favorite ingredient of all...bourbon! Today (May 30) happens to be National Mint Julep Day and we can think of no better way to celebrate than to assemble this favorite using one of the bourbons listed below. These brews were all crafted by ethical employers who give their workers a voice on the job. Happy National Mint Julep Day. Heck, why not make it National Mint Julep Weekend, and let’s all tipple our way to a stronger America.
