This Labor Day, even if the pandemic is keeping you indoors, you can get into the labor spirit with our list of tried and true movies about the value of unions and workers. Choose one or take in several and make it a festival!

Feature Films
- “On the Waterfront” (1954)
- “The Molly Maguires” (1970)
- “Norma Rae” (1979)
- “Matewan” (1987)
- “Bread and Roses” (2000)
- “North Country” (2005)
- “Made in Dagenham” (2010)

Documentaries
- “Native Land” (1942)
- “American Factory” (2019)
- “Roger & Me” (1989)
- “Harlan County U.S.A.” (1976)
- “At the River I Stand” (1993)
- “Miles of Smiles: Years of Struggle” (1982)

Find more union-made products at www.Labor411.org