

The Ethical Thanksgiving Feast

Thanks to the development of a COVID vaccine and America's dedication to putting the pandemic behind us, Thanksgiving 2021 should be a lot more festive than last year's holiday. We all have many reasons to be thankful this year, and there is no reason to scrimp on the holiday feast. One way to make sure that everything is extra tasty is to buy products made by companies that treat their workers well and give them a voice on the job. The list of products below includes ethical union manufacturers who are doing their part to help support a strong American middle class.

Stay safe and enjoy a happy and healthy holiday weekend.
